Absent Mrs Harris and Mrs Rice new name.

Mrs Oaks reported that she had talked with Mrs John L Sims of Mt.
Hebron and she agreed to her name being submitted as a prospective member.

Bought with Mrs Riestel's help bought books with the $500 gift from Mrs Johnston.
Emphasis was on needed Children's books.

The Model Cities Reading Program <sup>for adults who can't read</sup> has teachers. Library staff cooperates when needed.

Mrs Dorothy Johnston gave $500 for buying books at Watkinsville Branch Library and Lexington Branch Library.
Mrs Riestel has prepared a list of needed books.

Mrs Riestel reported Bogart Library neat and attractive and that the Circulation is improving. More people are seeking adult books.

Watkinsville Library is too crowded. Need of more space discussed. Mr Michael dis-suggested moving <sup>the</sup> to use of the new concrete building on old school ground.
This is County owned property and could be remodeled or rearranged. Further plans will be made.

August 30, 1972

The Oconee County Library Board met at the Watkinsville Library at 2:30 on Aug. 30 1972 in a call meeting which was also the regular quarterly meeting. We welcomed a new member, Mrs. Charles Halcomb who was appointed to the board in June. The first order of business was to elect a new librarian for the Watkinsville Library, Mrs. Billie (Claude) Brown. Mrs. Oaker announced that Mrs. Elder, the retiring librarian, would be honored Sept. 15th with a "Mildred Elder Day." A plaque and a cash donation will be awarded to Mrs. Elder. The suggestion was made that Mrs. Elder be honored with a luncheon with the Library Board Members, Miss Marnel and Mr. Reisbold. The matter of the best method of awarding the reading certificates was discussed.

(There will be no meeting Wed - we let the call meeting
go as the regular meeting - Willie

Acting Sec.

Present

Mrs Oaks, Mrs Talcomb, Mrs Harris
Mr Zaunder, Miss March and Mrs Rustol
Mrs DeWong absent dentist appointment <sup>after school</sup> Mrs Sims illness. Mrs Rice and Mrs McGray?

Minutes were read and approved - Melrose Elder Day was a huge success, Citizens giving $330 in cash as an award and City presenting her with a plaque were features of the Day. A Luncheon was held by the Library Board and Miss March and Mrs Rustol at the Davis Bros Cafeteria. The Library Board felt that the Day was a success.

There will be no float for the Library in the Parade.

Excellent publicity in the local paper was commended. - Mrs Brown's present display of Mrs Richmeyers paintings was discussed as well as the 2 volumes of Rare Books - an autographed copy by Colonel Kiser to Mrs Brewer in 1928. An effort will be made to find the original owner. The Dances Club of Watkinsville was the donor in 1948. The Books (2 volumes) on Pleasant's care by Babe -

Mrs Rustol reported story sessions in Kindergartens in Bogart and Watkinsville - Mrs Saunders reported 127- children are attending the 6 sessions

Oconee County will receive a check in December and beginning in January 1973 a fund called "Revenue Sharing" will come into the County for 3 years. The Board voted to ask the County Commissioners for an addition to the Library if the entire Library building where the Library is <sup>presently</sup> housed cannot be set aside as a Library.
The second choice is to be an addition to the present "Library Wing." Plans ~~are~~ procedures were organized - It is hoped the City will keep out by adding equipment etc -

Meeting adjourned.
